Hatton Shopping Village

A Myriad of Independent Shops

Carved out of Victorian farm buildings set in rolling Warwickshire countryside, Hatton Shopping Village is a place of very special charm.

The carthorses, cows, granary and dovecotes that used to occupy the buildings have given way to a bustling community of independent shopkeepers and today many of the old nooks and crannies are filled with things that simply can't be found on the High Street...

With its roots as a Craft Centre - some of the original craftsmen still remain - a Garden Boutique Store, bespoke jewellers and two restaurants, the centre is a delightful mix of the traditional and contemporary.

You will be sure to feel that timeless tranquillity and enjoy those friendly courtesies for which the English countryside is so famed.
