Charming Independent Shops...

Carved out of Victorian farm buildings on the Hatton Estate, set in rolling Warwickshire countryside. Hatton Shopping Village is a place of very special charm.

The carthorses, cows, granary and dovecotes that used to occupy the buildings have given way to a bustling community of independent shopkeepers and today many of the old nooks and crannies are filled with things that simply can't be found on the High Street...

You will be sure to feel that timeless tranquillity and enjoy those friendly courtesies for which the English countryside is so famed.
